

Scholastic Appoints Chris Lick Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary

May 27, 2025

NEW YORK, May 27, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Scholastic (NASDAQ: SCHL), the global children's publishing, education and media company, today announced Chris Lick has been appointed Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, effective June 1, 2025. He succeeds Andrew Hedden who held the position for 17 years and announced his retirement prior to shifting his role to Senior Counselor. Mr. Lick will report directly to President and Chief Executive Officer Peter Warwick.

Mr. Warwick shared, "Chris has become a key strategic partner to Scholastic's executive leadership, providing sound judgment that best serves both our values as a company and our growth-oriented business goals. We are eager to have him in this new role and grateful to Andy for his previous service."

In his new position, Mr. Lick will provide strategic legal counsel for Scholastic and its Board of Directors both in the U.S. and abroad. This includes oversight of critical legal functions including trademarks, litigation, compliance, information security, content development, and strategic alliances and acquisitions, among others.

Mr. Lick added, "Since day one at Scholastic, it has been a privilege to be part of an incredibly talented legal team and play my role in the company's mission to bring books to kids. We are growing the ways in which we do just that and I look forward to working closely with Peter, the managing executive committee and the Board to achieve our goals."

After joining Scholastic in 2008, Mr. Lick held several senior positions within the legal group, most recently serving as Senior Vice President and Deputy General Counsel. He brings to his role close to 25 years of proven, influential legal guidance affecting all areas of the Company, including corporate governance, technology and intellectual property, as well as acting as a key advisor at the senior executive level. Mr. Lick began his career at Sidley Austin LLP, a prominent global law firm where he honed his skills in the litigation department. He later worked at the top-ranked global firm Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP, where he contributed his expertise to the trademark and copyright group. Mr. Lick is a graduate of William and Mary in Virginia, and received his Juris Doctor, from Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law in New York.
